

The check to run before dividing injury counts by playing time

Read every verdict from interval bounds, never from point estimates. The threshold is a reporting convention, not a test.